Cedar Valley Hospice welcomes 3 new hires

Waterloo, October 6, 2022: Cedar Valley Hospice has welcomed three new employees to serve across three of the organization's four locations.

Haley Hansen, RN, BSN, of Independence has joined Cedar Valley Hospice as a nurse. Hansen will work in Independence and the surrounding areas. Prior to joining Cedar Valley Hospice, Hansen worked at Allen Hospital, where she received her BSN.

Bill Saak of Grundy Center works as a spiritual care counselor. Saak has seven years of experience in missionary work, including two years in Costa Rica, and worked with his brother on their family farm. As an ordained minister, Saak will primarily serve the Grundy Center area and assist in Waterloo and the Hospice Home.

Michele Williamson, CNA, of Rowley serves the Independence area as a hospice aide. Williamson has seven years of experience in the field and is a certified medical aide.
