PHONE CALLS FOR ATTENDANCE

We will try our best to give you a personal call to see if you will be attending our events. This is most important when we are having a catered event. The planning committee will try calling you once or twice. They will leave a message, but if they unable to do that, it will be your responsibility to let them know if you are coming. Please be understanding that we will try our best to reach you all because you matter to us.
